Combating Human Trafficking

This course is designed for law enforcement officers and will examine in detail current human trafficking trends in Michigan. This course will discuss the pimping subculture, conducting undercover prostitution stings, and interviewing juvenile victims of prostitution. The course will also highlight current state and federal laws related to these crimes.

The instructors will provide information on an actual juvenile and adult prostitution investigation which spanned from Michigan, Ohio, Florida, and Washington D.C. and grossed over $2 million in illegal money and assets. The instructors will discuss the different methods and techniques used to dismantle this criminal enterprise which involved two pimps and over nine juvenile victims.

The class is instructed by D/Sgt. Edward Price of the Southeast Michigan Crimes Against Children Task Force.
